

I urge the Commission to accept RM-10806 in its entirety.

The Amateur Radio Service (ARS) must remain a skilled service and not be converted into another Personal Radio Service. Removing Morse code proficiency requirements from ARS licensing below 30 MHz is tantamount to disregarding its primary Basis and Purpose as outlined in 97.1.